The Chesterfield County Domestic and Sexual Violence Resource Center serves as the hub for the County's coordinated response to domestic and sexual violence. The center acts as a resource for county wide service providers, victims or offenders as appropriate, by assisting to link professionals and citizens with available services in the community.

It's mission is to create and develop collaborative criminal justice responses, provide culturally sensitive services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking and to promote healthy relationships.

The Center leads the effort to eliminate violence against women in our community by strengthening the county's response through the development of innovative and collaborative solutions that provide safety and empowerment for victims and accountability for offenders.

The Chesterfield Domestic and Sexual Violence Resource Center is a county office currently located within the Community Corrections Department. The phone number is 804.318.8625.

For victims of domestic violence who need immediate assistance, please call 911 or contact the Police - 804-748-1251 or 804-318-8110 - after 5 p.m. and weekends, or the Virginia Family Violence and Sexual Assault 24-hour Hotline - 1-800-838-8238.

The Domestic Violence Regional Hotline is 804-612-6126 (intake).
