RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) is part of the Senior Corps services of the Corporation for National and Community Service. RSVP offers flexibility and choice to the volunteers. RSVP matches the personal interests and skills of older Americans with opportunities to help solve community problems. RSVP volunteers are 55 years of age or older and are volunteering to tutor children in reading and math, help build houses, get children immunized, model parenting skills to teen parents, participate in neighborhood watch programs, plan community gardens, deliver meals, offer disaster relief to victims of natural disasters and help community organizations operate more efficiently.
