Court advocacy for family violence protective orders. Court Advocate staff provides clients with assistance in obtaining Protective Orders and information to prepare you for your court experience. Our Advocate Can:

- - Accompany you through the process of filing for a Preliminary Protective Order.
- - Accompany you during your court appearances.
- - Accompany you to the magistrate's office to seek criminal charges or an Emergency Protective Order.
- - Assist by informing you once your Preliminary Protective Order has been served.
- - Provide you with information and referrals to attorneys and legal aid.
- - Support and encourage you throughout your legal process.
