New Beginnings is a support group for separated and divorced men and women in Maryland, the District of Columbia, and Virginia. Discussion meetings are held online to members several times a month and are open to non-members. The meetings offer a chance to talk to others who share and understand your concerns.

Activities include social events, guest speakers, and discussion meetings.

Call for information about membership fees and meeting fees. Referrals are preferred from members or professionals. Discussion topics: coping with loneliness, relationships with partners, children, friends, etc.

A newsletter is available.
