Magnolia Ridge Residential Care and Assisted Living is a residential care and assisted living care facility for the elderly, both ambulatory and non-ambulatory. Offers three levels of care: Residential, Regular Assisted, and Intensive Assisted. Provides private rooms, dining facilities with balanced meals, scheduled transportation, laundry and housekeeping facilities, and planned activities. There is a house doctor.

Cost is based on the level of care that is determined by standardized assessment. The level of care is re-assessed annually. There is no entrance fee.

Participates in the Department of Veterans Affairs Community Residential Care program for outplacement of community veterans. Client transportation is provided for a fee. The capacity is 34 residents.
