Our Health's Volunteer Action Center (VAC) is the region's non-profit volunteer resource hub. VAC works with community non-profit and public service organizations to address volunteer needs. VAC can connect, mobilize, engage, and support volunteers. VAC also promotes the professional development of effective volunteer programs in partner organizations by providing resources and training opportunities. VAC is a member of and certified through Points of Light and Hands on Network, an international non-profit organization that is dedicated to promoting volunteerism.
