The Christopher Center at Our Lady of Peace is a specialized Alzheimer's/dementia care unit, offering the Reflections Memory Care program. Our Lady of Peace is a nonprofit, non-denominational retirement community sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Richmond.

The Christopher Center offers personalized care in a quiet secure homelike atmosphere. Services offered include a full schedule of social, recreational, and religious activities, assistance with personal care, secured garden walking paths with a gazebo, daily housekeeping and laundry services, pastoral care for residents and families, physical, occupational, and speech therapists, and quarterly care planning with staff and families, onsite hairstylist and barber. Private and semi-private rooms are available. No entrance fee is required.

The capacity for assisted and memory care is 140.
