The Home Buyer Education program educates first-time homebuyers and supports them in the process of purchasing a home through classes, one-on-one assistance and connections to other community resources

At the free homebuyer's class, you learn how to apply for a mortgage, choose a real estate agent, and maintain your home. You'll get the facts from qualified people in real estate, banking, and inspections. All classes are held on Saturdays and last from 9:00am to 3:00pm. You must pre-register to attend. They are held at the Office Conference Room, 1093 East Main Street in Radford. Classes are open to anyone, regardless of income.

Topics covered include:

- Personal finances
- Credit reports/credit issues
- Role of the lender
- Relationship with real estate agent
- Fair Housing Act of Virginia
- Home inspection
- Loan closing
- Home maintenance
