The Abram Frink Jr Community Center, with James City County Parks and Recreation, is located on 8901 Pocahontas Trail (Route 60, 3 miles east of Busch Gardens) in Williamsburg, Virginia. The Center has a full-size gymnasium primarily used for open basketball and some volleyball, and locker rooms are also provided.

The facility now has a fitness room with a seven piece Cybex circuit, three treadmills, and two bikes, two ellipticals and one rower. A multipurpose room houses a pool and ping pong table, air hockey, and foosball. Meeting rooms and a racquetball court are available for rent. Programs such as sports classes, teen tournaments, move nights, Zumba classes and Silver Sneaker classes are held here.

Other services available to patrons include personal fitness training, soccer, softball field rentals, and more.
