New Kent Social Services is a County agency that is State supervised and locally administered. The Administrative office can provide information about benefit programs and services that are available to residents of New Kent County. The purpose of the agency is to promote self-reliance and protection for citizens through community-based services. The agency provides a variety of benefits and service programs.

These program areas include assistance to individuals and families for medical care, food, cash assistance, child and adult abuse/neglect, and out of home placement. Assistance requirements vary and an on-site interview may be required. For additional information contact the agency directly.

CommonHelp is the Commonwealth of Virginia's fast and easy way to apply online for many Virginia social services assistance programs.
