Hospice of the Piedmont offers support and counseling through their Center of Grief & Healing. The following opportunities are provide for those struggling through the loss of a loved one:

- Grief support groups for adults provide a safe, supportive environment where concerns, fears and questions can be discussed. Support groups, led by experienced professional counselors, meet for five (or more) consecutive weeks. Groups are offered several times a year during daytime and evening hours. Please contact the Grief Counseling Center or check our Calendar of Events for a current schedule.
- Individual and family sessions can be arranged with a Bereavement Counselor by calling 434-817-6900 to schedule an appointment.
- For children (up to age 18), support groups and individual counseling are available to address the unique needs and issues of grieving children and adolescents through the Kids Path program and the Journeys program.
- In addition to support groups and counseling, several educational events are scheduled throughout the year. The Hope for the Holidays program, annual Service of Remembrance, and other activities all offer opportunities for support.
