Westminster-Canterbury offers a Life Care retirement community to provide for those persons, age 62 years or older, regardless of race, religion, or ethnic origin, a spectrum of living arrangements and services that emphasize independent living with attendant nursing care, clinical services, meals, spiritual, social, and cultural activities, housekeeping and other services. All of this shall be offered in a caring, supportive, secure, environment by professionals who have respect and empathy for the individuality, integrity, and independence of all residents.

Chesapeake Bay offers independent living, assisted living, memory care, skilled nursing, rehabilitation, and at-home services.
