James City County Office of Housing offers affordable housing incentives. The agency provides:

- VHDA-approved First-Time Homebuyer Education Classes
- Developing a Plan to make homeownership a reality
- Credit Counseling
- Directing you to affordable homes
- Down-payment Assistance
- Low-interest loans

The program is geared toward persons considering purchasing their first home. Applicants must have income and employment stability and establish and maintain good credit. Financing programs have various income limits and other qualification requirements.

Participants who complete the VHDA class receive a certificate of completion and are eligible to apply for all VHDA loan programs. For information about VHDA, call 877-VHDA-123 or visit the website.
