The Craig Assisted Living wing, at the King's Grant Retirement Community, offers private studios with a bath and just the right amount of assistance when you need it. Service includes assistance with activities of daily living, including assistance with bathing, grooming, hygiene, and toileting.

King's Grant is a full-service retirement community and a licensed Continuing Care Community, offering three levels of care. Independent living includes cottages, apartments, or patio homes, with a variety of floor plans. Residents typically enter on an independent level and progress through the continuum of care.
