Volunteer opportunities are available for nurses, technicians, dentists, physicians and nurse practitioners, as well as lay volunteers to perform administrative and clerical tasks which include screening and registering patients before the clinic opens, entering patient data on the computer, pulling and refiling charts, answering the phone, confirming appointments and making new charts.

Additional positions are available at the Clothes Closet, the GFCFS thrift store and at the Food Bank. There are also clerical positions open at Family Services including answering phones, taking messages, filing and interviewing new clients for intake.

Call the Director of Volunteer Resources, Diane Reale at (804) 556-0476 to apply or for more information.
