Good News Jail and Prison Ministry provides full-time Chaplains as Pastoral Care Givers to local correctional facilities, ministering to inmates, staff members, and family members. Contact the Senior Chaplain, David Abernathy at 434-799-5130 or email him at david.abernathy@goodnewsjail.org, if you are interested in volunteering. Services include:

- Encouraging and counseling inmates, staff, and officers
- Establishing, coordinating, and overseeing programs of evangelism and discipleship
- Recruit, train, and supervise volunteers
- Perform ministerial functions when appropriate (weddings, funerals, etc.)
- Serve as a liaison and facilitator between the pastoral community and the institution

The Danville City Jail provides both educational and religious programs for the benefit of those incarcerated. For more information, contact the Jail at 434-799-5130.
