Virginia Home Care Partners offers non-medical in-home care. A caregiver can run errands, accompany and transport you to appointments, grocery shop, make beds, do light housekeeping and general chore services, monitor diet, meal preparation, clean up, etc.

In addition, services can include companionship, reading, playing games, socialization, discussions, visiting friends and neighbors, organizing mail, arranging appointments, mail letters, appointment and birthday reminders, etc.

Caregivers are trained, insured, and bonded. Services can be provided in the client's residence, assisted living, or nursing home facilities.
