Short Term Stays and respite care at The Jefferson provides just the right amount of support and service to balance our residents' desire for independence and their need for assistance. We provide assistance with daily activities by providing reminders and supervision (including bathing, dressing, grooming, toileting, orientation), housekeeping, linen and towel service, daily socials, scheduled transportation, regular status checks by 24-hour staff, daily activities designed especially for assisted living residents, and all utilities except telephone and cable service.
