Crisis Link offers volunteer opportunities in confidential telephone listening, referral and crisis intervention, including suicide prevention. Volunteers are selected based on an application, an interview, and progress during and after training. To apply, contact the Volunteer Coordinator at volunteer@crisislink.org to begin the process.

Non hotline volunteer opportunities are also available. Visit the website for more information.

Volunteers can commit to work for a minimum of 150 hours either six months working two 3 hour shifts per week or one year working one 3 hour shift per week.
