Fauquier Health Rehabilitation and Nursing Center offers respite care. Respite care is designed to offer caregivers a much-needed short-term break while providing a safe and comfortable haven for your loved one. You can relax and recharge knowing that physical and medical needs are being met, and that he or she is being treated with kindness and understanding.

There is no minimum stay. Respite care is not covered by insurance or Medicare. Advance arrangements are required, including information from your loved one's physician. Call for details so that you are prepared when the need arises.
