Greater Richmond Transit Company (GRTC) fixed route buses have the required features and equipment to allow individuals with disabilities to board, ride, and exit vehicles easily and comfortably. GRTC also operates a Specialized Transportation service for individuals who require additional assistance.

GRTC Transit System's CARE and CARE Plus services provide origin-to-destination service under the guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) for the citizens of the Richmond Region. CARE stands for "Community Assisted Ride Enterprise." CARE and CARE Plus provide public transportation access to individuals with disabilities who may not be able to use GRTC fixed route bus service.

Please contact the Eligibility Coordinator at (804) 358-3871 ext. 434 for more information.
