Voltran Transportation of Fauquier County is a volunteer transportation organization. It helps older adults and people with disabilities in Fauquier County maintain their health and independence by offering transportation services to medically necessary appointments and for critical errands such as therapy appointments, doctor and pharmacy visits, and grocery shopping. Transportation is on a first-come, first-served basis and depends on the availability of volunteer drivers.

A CareVan Ramp is available and two wheelchairs can be accommodated. For car transportation, riders must be mobile and able to enter and leave the vehicle with assistance.
