Diagnostic Health Screening

Programs that test people for the presence of a particular disease or condition. The purpose of screening is to identify people who have a potential problem and refer them for early diagnosis and treatment and, where possible, to provide preventive measures.

Links

Disability Information and Access Line (DIAL)

Source Disability Information and Access Line (DIAL) Article

2023 CDC Guidance on COVID-19

As we move forward, find important local COVID-19 guidance and community-level data along with other tools related to travel, quarantine and isolation, self-testing, and staying healthy.

Source Centers for Disease Control (CDC) Links

Virginia Department of Health COVID-19 Vaccination Response

Source Virginia Department of Health COVID-19 Vaccination Response Links

CDC: End of the Federal COVID-19 Public Health Emergency

Source

CDC: End of the Federal COVID-19 Public Health Emergency Links

National Foundation for Infectious Diseases

Source National Foundation for Infectious Diseases Article

Hepatitis C Basics

Learn more about Hepatitis C risk factors, testing, and treatment.

Source Centers for Disease Control (CDC) Article

Blood Pressure (BP) Checks: What Can You Do?

Helpful information to help you get the most accurate blood pressure measurements.

Source Virginia Department of Health Article

High Blood Pressure: Tips for Keeping It Under Control

High Blood Pressure is a serious condition that can lead to stroke, heart disease, kidney failure, and other health problems. The good news is, there are ways to control it.

Source National Institute on Aging Showing 1-8 of 8 Results